naked Mr. Sulka to take charge of her effects. Explicit directions were given for their disposal.

Another letter was addressed simply to "The Warrens," Mr. and Mrs. War-ren were also friends of Mrs. Burling. She left them some of her personal effects and asked them to assist in the disposition of her preparty. Efforts are new being made to reach her only known relative, a sister, Mrs. Murray, who is travelling in the South.

Had Made Much Money.

Mr. Sulka said to-day that Mr. Burling, though temporarily financially embarrassed by the stringency of the money market, had made a lot of money in real estate deals about the city.

Following the death of hir husband, many letters from prominent Christian Scientists in Pittsburg, Philadelphia and points in New York State, were sent to Mrs. Burling, bidding her to stay true to the faith in her hour of trouble and bereavament. bereavement.

That she was an active worker in the Christian Science circle was snown also by a note which was found by the Coroner on her dresser.

Hymn Found by Coroner. It was apparently a new Christian Science hymn, which she has written, and ran as follows.

Now I lay me down to sleep.
I know that God dis child will keep.
I know that God dis child will keep.
I know that God on life is nigh.
I live in Him. I cannot die.
God Is my health.
I can't be sleek;
God is my strength,
Unfailing, quiek.
God is my All. I know no fear.
Since God and Love and Truth are here.
Mrs. Sulka, who is prominent in the First Church of Christian Science, at Ninety-sixth street and Central Park
West, told an Evening World reporter that had Mrs. Burling been truly rooted in the faith, she could never have died as she did. The Sulkas and the Rurlings in the faith, she could never have ded as she did. The Sulkas and the Burlings attended services tgether nearly every President Laughlin, of Hollow Brake Beam Company, is Sued for An Accounting.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.-Henry G. Brown. of Pittsburg, to-day filed a bill in the United States Circuit Court, asking that the assets of the National Hollow Brake Beam Company be distributed among the company's stockholders and credors. It is alleged in the bill that Henry D

Laughlin, for many years president of the company, has diverted funds of the corporation to his own use, The complainant asks for an account-ing to show how much Laughlin owes the company. A receiver is also asked for.
